SJMHS Medical Staff Compact

As a member of the medical staff of the Saint Joseph Mercy Health System (SJMHS), you serve as a trusted partner in the delivery of health care services to our patients and community. Guided by our Core Values, we are committed to the delivery of people-centered care that leads to better health care, improved health outcomes and overall lower costs for our patients, residents, members and communities we serve. The following standards are expected of all clinical professionals who work at SJMHS.

Professionalism

Deliver people-centered, quality health care services with compassion, dignity and respect for each individual.

Deliver services without regard to race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, citizenship, age, disability, genetic information, payer source, ability to pay, or any other characteristic protected by law.

Maintain a positive and courteous customer service orientation.

Demonstrate the highest levels of ethical and professional conduct at all times and under all circumstances.

Speak professionally and respectfully to those you serve.

Respond to requests for information or assistance in a timely and supportive manner.

Behave in a manner that enhances a spirit of cooperation, mutual respect and trust among all members of the team.

Commit to working with others in a supportive team environment.

Deliver services in accordance with all professional standards that apply to your position.

Create and maintain complete, timely and accurate medical records consistent with medical staff bylaws.

Protect the privacy and confidentiality of all personal health information - electronic, paper or verbal - you may receive.

Maintain appropriate licenses, certifications and other credentials required of your position.

Abstain from inappropriate physical contact with others and report any harassment, intimidation or violence of any kind that you witness.

Maintain a safe work environment by performing your duties and responsibilities free from the influence of drugs or alcohol.

Protect the confidentiality of all medical peer review information.

Commitment to Providing Quality Care that is Safe and Medically Appropriate

Commit to safety: every patient, every time.

Speak up when you see a quality or safety issue and discuss mistakes you see with others so we can learn how to prevent future mistakes.

Adhere to clinical guidelines and protocols that reflect evidence-based medicine.

Actively engage and support efforts to improve quality of care, including organization-approved technology advancements.

Actively participate in initiatives to improve care coordination between and among caregivers, community support agencies and other providers.

Actively participate in initiatives to improve the health of the community as a whole.

Corporate Citizenship

Act with honesty and integrity in all activities.

Actively participate in training programs offered by your organization.

Follow your organization's policies requiring the disclosure of outside activities or relationships that could represent a conflict of interest with your medical staff role and any other responsibilities.

Conduct all medical research activities consistent with the highest standards of ethics and integrity and in accordance with all federal and state laws and regulations, and your organization's Institutional Review Board policies.

Immediately notify your Medical Staff Office if notified you have been excluded or debarred from participation in federal or state health care programs.

Stewardship of Resources

Properly use and protect all resources including materials and supplies, equipment, staff time and financial assets.

Respect the environment and follow your organization's policies for the handling and disposal of hazardous materials and infectious waste.

Advocating for Our Patient's Needs

Provide comfort for our patients, including prompt and effective response to their needs.

Communicate clinical information to patients and their designees in a clear and timely manner.

Discuss available treatment options openly with patients, or their designees, and involve them in decisions regarding their care.

Provide care to all patients who arrive at your facility in an emergency, as defined by law, regardless of their ability to pay or source of payment.

Clearly explain the outcome of any treatment or procedure to patients, or their designees, especially when outcomes differ significantly from expected results.

Respect patient advance directives.

Address ethical conflicts that may arise in patient care, including end-of-life issues, by consulting your organization's medical ethics committee.

Provide consistent with the Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services.

Follow all requirements of Medicare, Medicaid, other federal and state health care programs, as well as those of commercial insurance companies and other third-party payers. These requirements generally involve:

- ❖ Delivering high-quality, medically necessary and appropriate services.
- ❖ Creating and maintaining complete and accurate medical records.
- ❖ Submitting complete and accurate claims for services provided.
- ❖ Protecting the privacy and security of health information we collect.
